

WELV 23rd ANNUAL CONFERENCE

March 3-4, 2022

Attendee Feedback

What did you like most about this year's WELV Annual Conference?

- The facility and being able to connect with other educational leaders.
- First WELV Conference...very informative and loved the networking opportunities
- Jill Siler truly set the stage for the conference. Monica Washington was also very good regarding the information she presented.
- I really enjoyed Dr. Jill Siler. Her presentation was motivational.
- Being able to meet in person! Connections! Dr. Siler was awesome.
- The networking, main sessions, concurrent learning sessions
- Sense of welcome and ample amount of support from others
- Seeing, networking, and sharing/learning with my friends
- Dr. Siler, Noelle
- Dr. Siler's presentation
- Jill Siler and Noelle Ng Thank you for the book
- The keynote speakers: Jill Siler and Monica Washington
- The variety of speakers and topics
- The keynote speaker was awesome!
- The opportunity for networking and the keynote
- I enjoyed all of it!
- The motivation and affirmation and networking
- Networking
- Everything -self-care important
- Classes, Network
- The sense of community
- Fellowship-spending time with our teams and others who do this work
- In-person, Round table talks
- Networking
- Jill
- As always, the opportunity to connect. Table sessions were a nice new "shake up".
- The active engagement of the participants
- The networking is incredible. I love being in the same room with people who are like-minded.
- The shared experiences, the strong leadership...Everything spoke to me...
- Networking- Great sessions with relevant information. Outstanding Keynote...Dr. Jill Siler
- How passionate the speakers were...inspiring
- In person
- Sense of community
- Jill
- Great presentations! Awesome networking...Everyone is so welcoming!
- Jill Siler
- Thrive Through the Five - Jill Siler presentation

WELV 23rd ANNUAL CONFERENCE

March 3-4, 2022

Attendee Feedback

- Keynote presentation by Dr. Jill Siler
- This was my first WELV Conference. My experience was more than I expected. I am very excited to return next year.
- The community model, the positiveness in the room and the sessions
- It was just great! My first time attending...
- Collaborative spirit and information shared
- In person experience and being back together again! Jill Siler was the perfect kickoff keynote speaker
- The keynotes have been amazing.
- Nice to be in person and relevant and engaging speakers
- Being able to hear the guest speaker, Dr. Jill Siler, speak
- I loved Jill Siler and the round tables
- Being in person
- Round tables and key speakers!!!
- The topics were all timely and important
- Networking
- In-person/keynote speaker/hotel
- In-person/networking/topics
- Comfort of room set-up, Collegiality, Feeling of Celebration, Dr. Jill Siler's session
- Sense of community
- New people to connect with
- The opportunity to meet and network face-to-face
- The ability to collaborate with women who are in leadership roles.
- Email list of members on group app to interact with members
- Everyone was so open and welcoming!
- Being together with my WELV sisters again!
- It was well put together as always
- Speakers...high quality, relevant...that is actual educational leaders including the panel