

WOMEN EDUCATION LEADERS IN VIRGINIA

www.welv.org

Virginia Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development Annual Conference

December 1, 2016 10:30-11:45

Harnessing Presence, Poise and Confidence for Your Biggest Challenges

The session is designed to consider “presence” as it relates to women leaders. Using the New York Times Best Seller, “Presence” as the anchor for this session, a panel of women educational leaders will respond, through their own career experiences, to the importance of “presence” in serving as an executive leader. These leaders will share how they harness presence to become confident leaders, creating bold change for young people in their schools.

Presentation and Panel

Based on the book:

Presence: Bringing Your BOLDEST SELF to Your BIGGEST CHALLENGES By Amy Cuddy

Panelists:	Beth Baptist, Ed.D.	Dean of Faculty Strayer University President, WELV
	Kim Evans, Ed.D.	Assistant Superintendent Hopewell City Public Schools Secretary, WELV
	Linda Reviea, Ed.D.	Superintendent Staunton City Schools President-Elect, WELV
Moderator:	Elaine Fogliani, Ph.D.	Executive Director, WELV Educational Planner/Client Relations Crabtree, Rohrbaugh & Associates, Architects

Session Agenda

10:30-11:00	Overview of Presence: Bringing Your BOLDEST SELF to Your BIGGEST CHALLENGES
11:00-11:30	Panelists will respond to questions outlined below.
11:30-11:45	Questions and comments from the participants

Panelists will respond to the following questions:

1. What proposition or research presented in this book most impacted you and caused you to reflect on your presence as a leader?
2. When you think of your own presence, what do you see as strengths? What are areas you would like to improve?
3. In the book, the author discusses the mindset of presence for students. As we develop mindsets for learning in students, what lessons in this book can guide us?
4. Describe an experience you have had where either your complete presence was needed or where someone tried to diminish your presence?